

Instructions for use

--- Suzhou Pairlink Network Technology Ltd.,

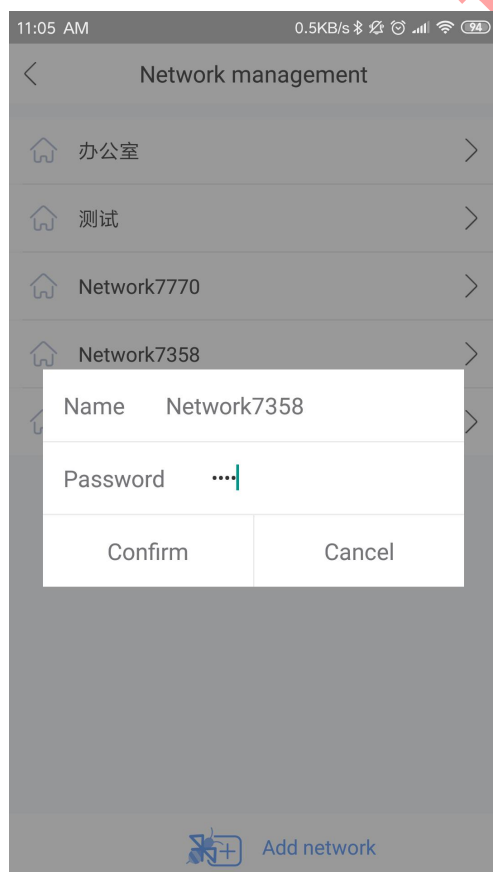

1. The first time you open the app to pop up the permission information, you need to click "Allow".

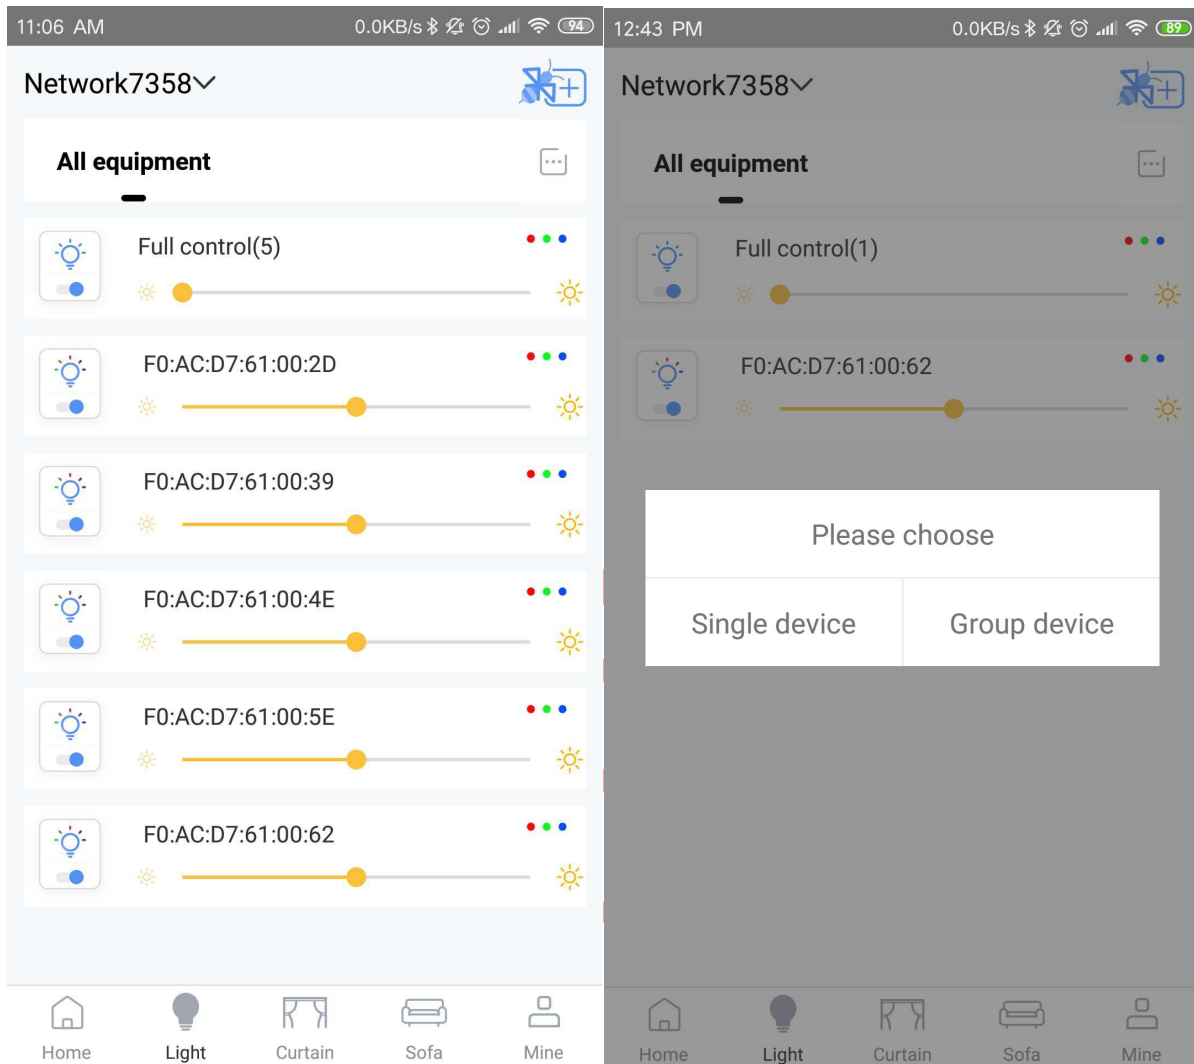

2. Show the scanned surrounding network, you can log in to the network that knows the password, or click "Add network" to create a new network.

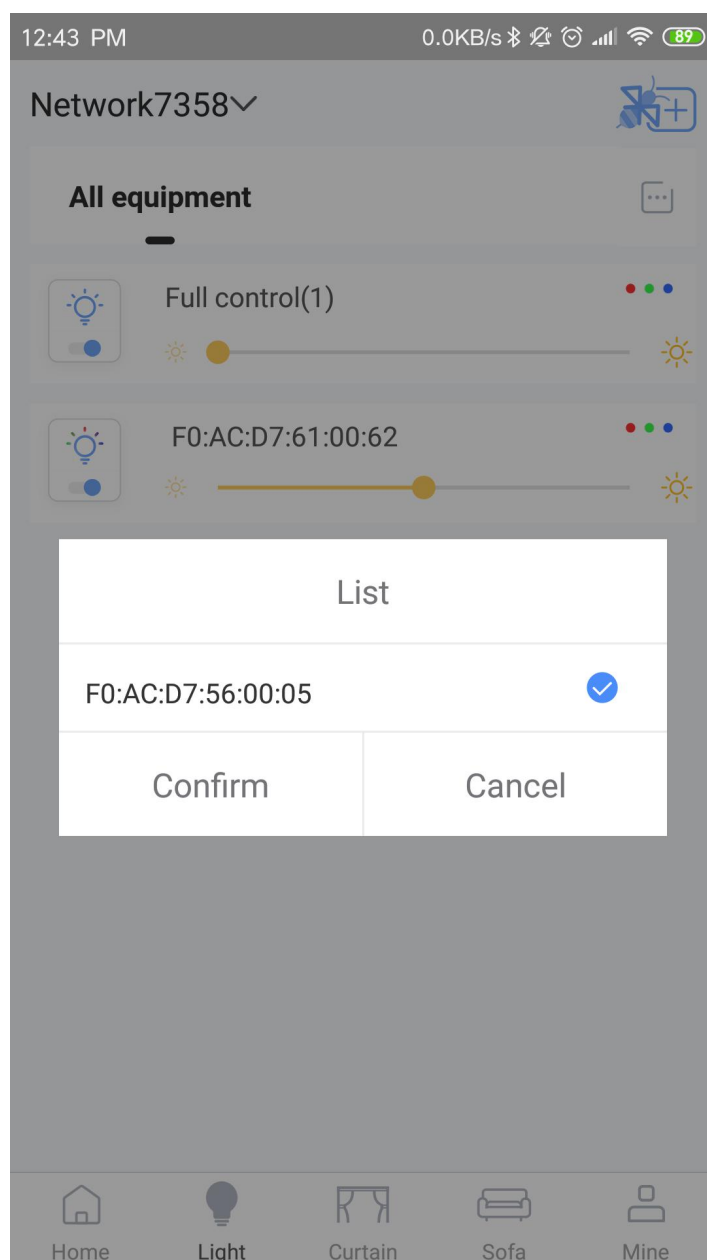

- Log in to the scanned network, enter the correct password and click "confirm"

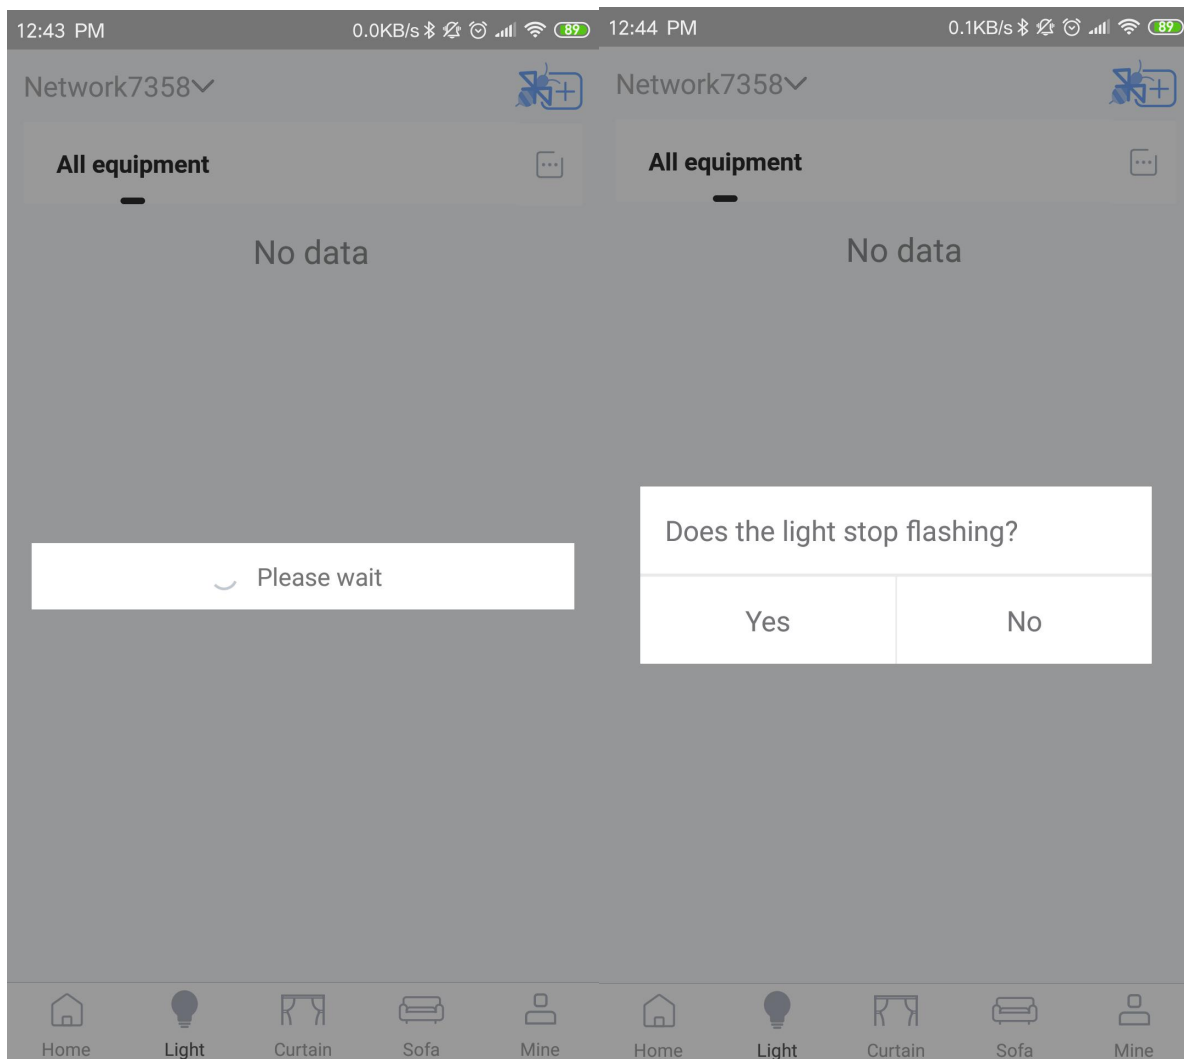

4. After the login is successful, display the device status on the network, click “” the icon to view the room information, and click “” to add device

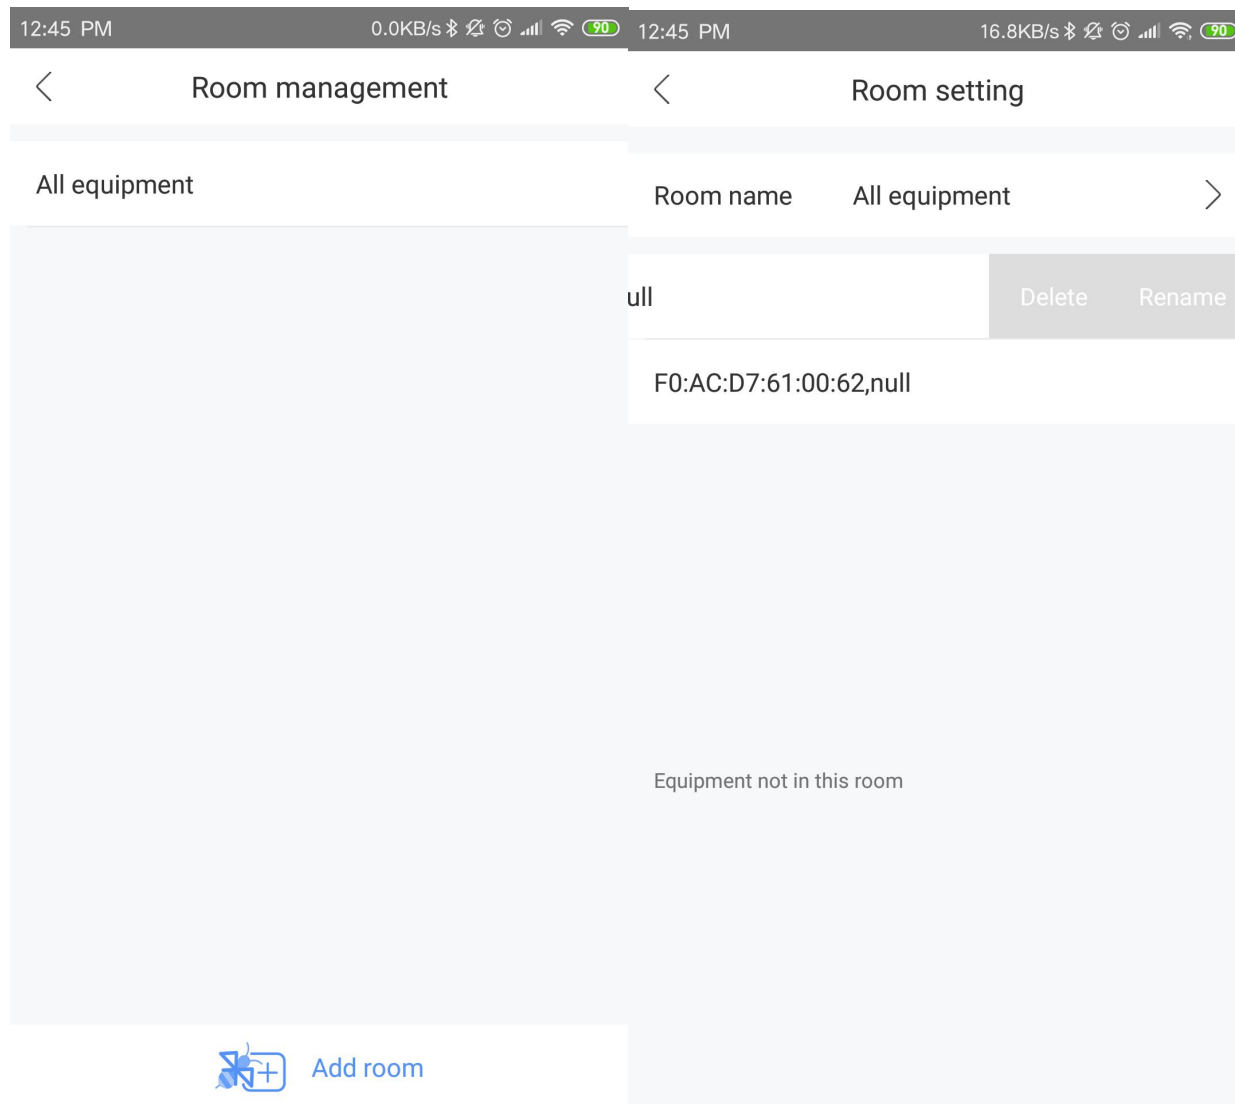

5. Click “Single device”: Check the scanned device and click OK.

- Click "Group Device": Wait until all the lights on the device stop flashing, click "Yes"

7. Click "...": Click "Add room" to create a room; Click on the room name to jump to the room details, show all the equipment in the room, left slide to delete or rename; and not in this room, left slide can be added to the room or renamed.

CONFIDENTIAL